Who is WatchDogJeff

Jeff Church is an elected Trustee of the Washoe County School District serving since 2020 with his term ending in January 2024.

Jeff is a retired Reno Police Sergeant and a retired US Air Force Lieutenant Colonel (LtCol)- Reserve. Jeff is a VFW Life Member and had multiple deployments in his career serving mostly in Intelligence. As a Police Sergeant, he founded the RPD "HELP" Homeless Program. He then founded and was Board President of Reno's first 24-7-365 Homeless Center at 220 Bell St. It proved a huge success with reductions in crime and freeing up police for other duties.

The Air Force core values are Integrity First, Service Before Self, and Excellence in all we do. Jeff believes in those values and seeks to educate the public on issues and is not seeking the school board as a spring board for future positions- unlike others.

Jeff holds two college degrees from San Diego State and Southwestern College and he holds certificates of training from law enforcement and the military too numerous to mention.

WatchDogJeff (Part Two)

Jeff considers himself a mainstream conservative and 'the loyal opposition' often as the one to six vote on the WCSD School Board. At times being the proverbial Red Headed Step Child (with a respect to RHSC).

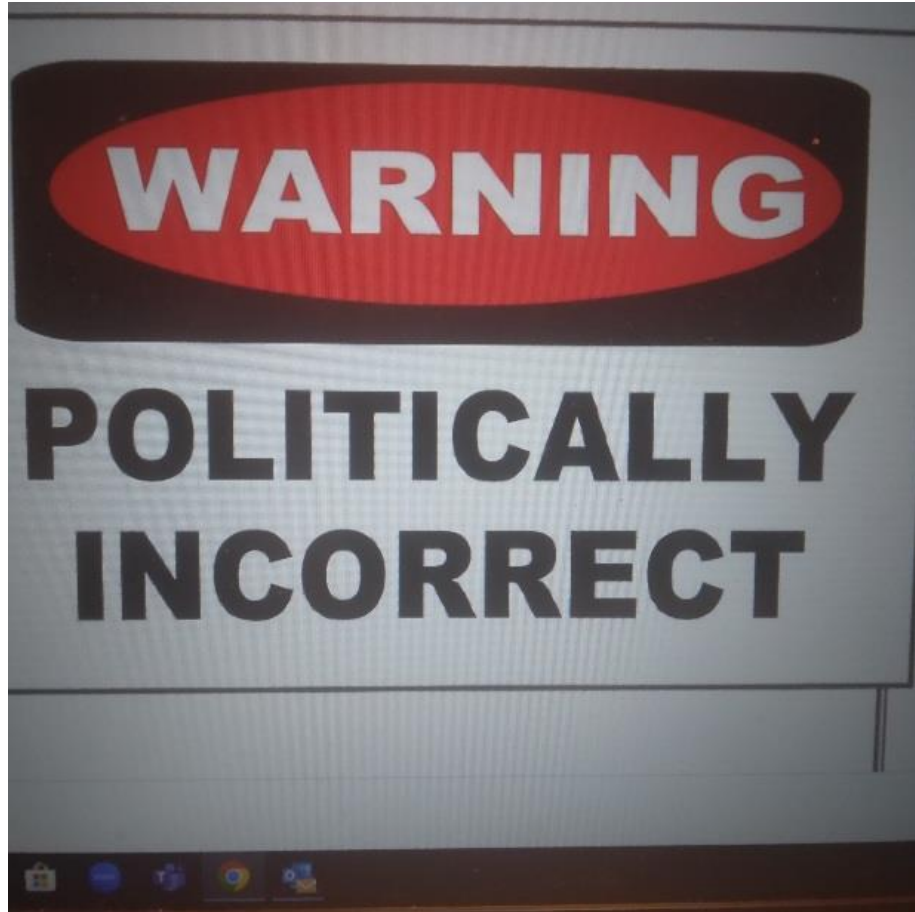

The term Watchdog was applied to Jeff by the Honorable late Federal Judge Reed (for which Reed High School was named). Reed, a former school trustee, used the term to commend Jeff on his being a government watchdog in a legal action against a local government.

Jeff urges others to get involved in their own way. Attend and speak at a school board meeting, attend and learn about local government- where perhaps you may make an impact- at various local non-profit group meetings. Consider joining one of dozens of state and local committees. Volunteer in schools, coach sports, be a mentor and maybe run for office yourself!

Points well made

After Jeff “Didn’t drink the Kool-Aid” and exposed serious issues at WCSD, the Board President made a failed attempt to Censure him claiming “Mis-Information”

JASON BEAN

For if Men are to be precluded from offering their Sentiments on a matter, which may involve the most serious and alarming consequences, that can invite the consideration of Mankind, reason is of no use to us; the freedom of Speech may be taken away, and, dumb and silent we may be led, like sheep, to the Slaughter. GEORGE WASHINGTON

Freedom of speech is a principal pillar of a free government; when this support is taken away, the constitution of a free society is dissolved, and tyranny is erected on its ruins. BENJAMIN FRANKLIN

If liberty means anything at all, it means the right to tell people what they do not want to hear. GEORGE ORWELL

There's no fine line between "free speech" and "hate speech": Free speech is hate speech; it's for the speech you hate -- and for all your speech that the other guy hates. If you don't have free speech, then you can't have an honest discussion. Mark Steyn

Legislators have an obligation to take positions on controversial political questions so that their constituents can be fully informed by them, and be better able to assess their qualifications for office; also so they may be represented in governmental debates by the person they have elected to represent them.” (US Supreme Ct)

Texas v. Johnson, 491 U.S. 397, 1989: “If there is a bedrock principle underlying the First Amendment, it is that the government may not prohibit the expression of an idea simply because society finds the idea itself offensive or disagreeable.” Texas v Johnson, US Supreme Court

Everyone is in favour of free speech. Hardly a day passes without its being extolled, but some people's idea of it is that they are free to say what they like, but if anyone says anything back, that is an outrage. Churchill
